

WHEN YOU BUY PAINT

did you ever stop to think what you get for your money? Good paint must be made of materials that will cover the greatest surface properly, that will last longest and look the best, that will not crack or scale off.

Whether you paint a house or barn, a fence or a piece of furniture, we have the paint that will answer the purpose.

DISTRICT COURT.

Jeff Brooks, colored, charged with assault to murder, pleaded guilty in the district court this morning and the jury assessed his punishment at seven years in the penitentiary.

The cases against F. E. Pye, a prominent real estate man and banker of Houston, charged with forgery in two cases, are set for tomorrow. The cases were sent here on a change of venue from Houston and a great deal of interest attaches. There will be a large number of witnesses and attorneys here from Houston tomorrow.

HAD ARM BADLY CUT.

Charles Stephan, one of the proprietors of the Stephan bottling works, had his wrist very painfully cut just before noon today while bottling soda water. A bottle he was filling burst, cutting a great gash in his wrist and severing the large artery in his arm. His injuries were attended at once by Dr. Emory and he is expected to be all right in a few days.

The Smart Set.

This season Salem Tutt Whitney heads the famous "Smart Set" company, which will be seen in the latest musical comedy success, "The Mayor of New Town," at the Colonial theatre next Tuesday night, September 26. The entertainment, which is in three acts, contains a dozen or more song hits, pretty ensembles, vaudeville novelties and features, and if real merit is any criterion should score a formidable triumph here. Seats on sale Friday morning at Brandon & Lawrence's.

The Eastern Vaudeville and Comedy Company will give an entertainment at Dellwood park tonight. Singing, dancing and many side-splitting stunts by black-faced artists will be among the features of the show. There will be six high-class vaudeville acts, and it all is a laugh from start to finish.

B. B. A. ATHLETICS ON GAMMILL FIELD

Mr. O. E. Gammill, who has proved himself to be a public benefactor to Bryan through the interurban car line, also proved himself to be the same to the Bryan Baptist Academy when he made our athletic grounds. They are in good condition and are such that any school the size of our academy might well be proud. To show our appreciation of Mr. Gammill's great kindness we have named these grounds "Gammill Field."

Mr. Voris, the director of athletics, comes to us very highly recommended for the excellent work done by him along this line, and especially on the Kentucky university football team. He finds that we have good material to work with and is very enthusiastic over our prospects for a football team of which we shall be proud.

We have an outdoor gymnasium for the boys, also basketball and tennis courts for both boys and girls. We expect to have a track team as well as basketball and tennis clubs which will be a credit to our school.

We realize that to have our girls and boys receive a thoroughly rounded education they must be developed physically as well as mentally, morally and spiritually. We therefore en-
